

Letter From Texas.

Arlington, Texas, July 26, 1907.
Mr. J. B. Kevil,

Dear Sir: I had a letter from you dated the 5th, which I answered. I have decided to write to you again, but on a different subject.

My father moved from Marion in 1875, an early day, and I never heard him assign but one reason for coming to Texas, and that was, that his boys could get land. He never owned more than 100 acres. But he got where his boys had a chance. There are two of us, John and myself. We have handled quite a lot of land, we have several hundred acres yet, up into the thousands.

But what I want to say to you is this: I have a town site in Wheeler county, a new town, and some land near the town and I want some settlers for the land. The land is good farm land and anyone should be able to make a good living on the land. While the land sells for only $10. to $20. per acre, yet it is certainly worth $40. to $50. per acre. I want four families that are of good moral character, I would prefer that they be differently religious. I want four families to settle on 640 acres in two miles of Ramsdell, Texas, Wheeler county. You can look on the Rock Island maps and see Ramsdell to be 83 miles east of Amarillo, Texas.

I will give them all they can make on the land for two years, and pay them for their wire, lumber and posts when they get ready to leave, after the two years are out, that is, I will pay what the stuff cost, they can take a receipt for what they are out and then take good care of the stuff. I will want them to set out a few trees, but that will take but little time and I will furnish the trees. The land is extra good level farm land. I will not want to get the land adulterated with Johnson grass or cuckleburs.

I will refer you to Mr. Crider, of Canyon City, Tex., and if they would like for him to come to see my proposition, I will pay his way to see the land. I will say this, that I think this a liberal proposition I am making.

I am giving away the first fifty

For that Dandruff

There is one thing that will cure it—Ayer's Hair Vigor. It is a regular scalp-medicine. It quickly destroys the germs which cause this disease. The unhealthy scalp becomes healthy. The dandruff disappears, had to disappear. A healthy scalp means a great deal to you—healthy hair, no dandruff, no pimples, no eruptions.

business or resident lots in Ramsdell in the way of advertising, but they must be occupied. Several of the lots are already taken, but I will give any lot, not taken, who may per chance desire to go from there and occupy the lot.

There is good bargains in land near Ramsdell and if any are interested in the land question they may write to The Ramsdell Land and Development Co., Ramsdell Texas, Wheeler county, or write to me at Arlington, Texas.

Yours truly,
ED. R. WALLACE.

How to Avoid Appendicitis.

Most victims of appendicitis are those who are habitually constipated. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures chronic constipation by stimulating the liver and bowels and restores the natural action of the bowels. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitute. J. H. Orme.

Be Kind in Little Things.

The sunshine of life is made up of little beams that are bright all the time. In the nursery, on the playground and in the schoolroom, there is room all the time for little acts of kindness, that cost nothing but are worth more than gold and silver. To give up something when giving up will prevent unhappiness; to yield them persisting will chafe and fret others; to go a little way around rather than go against another; to take an ill word or a cross look rather than to resent it; these are the ways in which clouds and storms are kept off and a pleasant, smiling sunshine secured even in an humble home, among very poor people, as well as in families in higher station. Much that we term the miseries of life would be avoided by adopting this rule of conduct.—Ex.

A Happy family.

Sold by all druggists.

Dies at Dawson.

Col. Isaac H. Trabue, in ante-bellum days a leading citizen and business man of this place, but recently of Punta Gorda, Florida, died last week at Dawson Springs and was buried in the state cemetery at Frankfort, Kentucky. He was the last survivor of a noted Kentucky family which claimed Hawesville as its home, all of his brothers and sisters having died before him. He was a man of affairs and laid out and owned most of his home town in Florida. Before leaving Kentucky, he had a state reputation as a lawyer, and later acquired fame as an author, by the publication of his book, "The Black Wench."—Hawesville Clarion.

Carefulness And Carelessness.

It is easier to avoid mistakes than to correct them after they have been made. It takes less time and energy to stop and think and question a line of action wisely, than it does to rush ahead thoughtlessly and carelessly do the thing wrong, and then have to undo it and do it over again properly. Worse yet if it is a thing that cannot be undone, that must stand as a monument to our lack of care and thought.

Either carefulness or carelessness can soon be made a habit. What habit is better, that of making mistakes or the habit of getting things right? The answer is not hard to guess. Neither is the right habit so hard to form. Every repetition of the mental acts of choosing the right thing to do and the right way to do it, helps to fix the habits and avoid mistakes. Each triumph leads joyfully and easily on to the next one—just as each mistake of the careless person opens the gate for the next one to slip in.

Better far, had we avoided mistakes, than wasted time and strength making and correcting them.—Ex.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera And Diarrhoea Remedy, Better Than Three Doctors.

"Three years ago we had three doctors with our little boy and everything that they could do seemed in vain. At last when all hope seemed to be gone we began using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and in a few hours he began to improve. Today he is as healthy a child as parents could wish for."—Mrs. B. J. Johnston, Linton, Miss. For sale by J. H. That we Could all Dream.

A few nights ago John Vandiver, a prosperous farmer living near Rockport, Ky., dreamed that a large amount of money was buried in the hollow of a tree on his farm. The dream seemed so real that he decided to search for the tree, which he soon located. A tin can was found in the hollow which contained over $3,000, in gold and greenbacks. Mr. Vandiver is at a loss to know who the original owner was.—Ex.

How to be Miserable.

Sit by a window and look over the way to your neighbor's excellent mansion which he has recently built and paid for and fitted out, and sigh, "O that I were a rich man!"

Get angry with your neighbor and think you have not a friend in the world. Shed a tear or two and take a walk in the cemetery and keep continually saying to yourself: "When shall I be buried here?"

Sign a note for a friend and never forget your kindness, and every hour in the day whisper to yourself: "I wonder if he'll ever pay that?"

Think everybody means to cheat you. Closely examine every bill you take and doubt it being genuine until you have put your neighbor to a great deal of trouble. Put confidence in nobody and believe every man you deal with to be a rogue. Never accommodate if you can possibly help it. Buy as cheap as you can and screw down to the lowest cent. Grind the faces and hearts of the unfortunate. Brood over your misfortunes, your lack of talent and believe that at no distant day you will come to want. Let the poorhouse be ever in your mind, with all the horrors of distress and poverty.

Follow these recipes strictly and you will be miserable to your heart's content, if we may so speak, sick at heart and at variance with the world. Nothing will cheer or encourage you, nothing will throw a gleam of sunshine or a ray of warmth into your heart. You will be an isolated creature, a perfect picture of woe, discontent and despair.—Ex.

HAD AN AWFUL TIME

But Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera And Diarrhoea Remedy Cured Him.

It is with pleasure that I give you this unsolicited testimonial. About a year ago when I had a severe case of measles I got caught out in a hard rain and the measles settled in my stomach and bowels. I had an awful time and had it not been for the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I could not have possibly lived but a few hours longer, but thanks to this remedy I am now strong and well. I have written the above through simple gratitude and I shall always speak a good word for this remedy.—Sam H. Gwin, Concord, Ga., For sale by J. H. Letter from Geo. H. Crider.

Mt. Whitney, Cal., July 14, '07.

Dear Marshall: Come out and spend a few days in the mountains.

Mount Whitney is 100 miles from the Railroad. There is lots of bear, deer and turkey, also grouse in the mountains. Trout fishing is fine. I am 200 miles from my family. I will go to the Ocean tonight. California is fine for scenery. All kinds of wages are high here; living expenses very reasonable in the fruit belt. I never hear from Kentucky any more, not in one place long enough.

Your friend,
Geo. H. Crider.

At this season we should eat sparingly and properly. We should also help the stomach as much as possible by the use of a little Kodol occasionally. Kodol For Indigestion and Dyspepsia will rest the stomach by actually digesting the food itself. Sold by J. H. Orme.

Eclipse of the Moon.

The partial eclipse of the moon on the night of the 24th, was an object of interest to many people. The moon entered the earth's dark shadow at 9:04 and at 10:22 the eclipse was at its largest, about five-eighths of the moon's diameter being hidden. The moon left the shadow at 11:41.

The night was clear and the eclipse was visible with the naked eye almost as well as with a telescope.

Hunting For Trouble.

"I've lived in California 20 years, and am still hunting for trouble in the way of burns, sores, wounds, boils, cuts, sprains, or a case of piles that Bucklen's Arnica Salve won't quickly cure," writes Charles Walters, of Alhambra, Sierra Co. No use hunting, Mr. Walters; it cures every case, Guaranteed at J. H. Orme's drug store. 25c.
